Nursing Level I applicants only:

After meeting all admission requirements you will be assigned a clinical start quarter based on your date of admission file completion. Due to the number of applicants for this program, your actual clinical start quarter will likely be later than your quarter requested. Failure to start clinicals any quarter after your earliest quarter of enrollment listed on Page 1 of this application may result in the withdrawal of your admission application. You are encouraged to take no more than two quarters of general nursing courses prior to starting the clinical portion of the nursing program. See the Nursing Level I Admission Information online at www.hocking.edu/academics/schools/health\_and\_nursing/nursing/lpn\_admission.

Level I Nursing applicants may apply for either the Nursing Level I-Practical Nursing Diploma (410) OR the Nursing Level I-Evening/Weekend (415) program but may not apply for both programs simultaneously. The Nursing Level I-Evening/Weekend program begins each fall quarter of even numbered years (i.e., fall 2008, fall 2010).

Nursing Level II applicants only:

Are you a licensed practical nurse?  Yes  No
