

Criminal Justice: Law Enforcement

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Criminal Justice: Law Enforcement Program

The Criminal Justice: Law Enforcement Program, which is also available 100% online, offers a strong foundation in real world principles and practices. Through a focused course of study, students gain the skills and knowledge that make them strong candidates for a wide range of career opportunities in the Criminal Justice field.

The law enforcement track provides students the option of taking the Ohio Peace Officer Basic Academy (POB) during their last semester at Hocking College, which will allow them to graduate with both an associate degree in criminal justice and their Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy (OPOTA) certification*. This track also prepares students for continuing on to a four-year degree if they choose.

(*Dependent on passing state test)

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

Hocking College has articulation agreements with multiple schools including, Franklin University, University of Cincinnati, Waldorf University, and Indiana Wesleyan University. This partnership allows students in the Criminal Justice program to complete their associate degree at Hocking College, then continue to one of the institutions listed above to receive their bachelor's.

EMPLOYMENT

The average salary for criminal justice in Central Ohio ranges from $36,000 - $56,000.

Examples of places where Hocking College alumni have worked or are currently working include the following:
