

Film & Video Production

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Film & Video Production Program

The Film & Video Production program at Hocking College is a two-year, hands-on experience designed to prepare students for careers in the film and media industry or transfer into a four-year program. Students gain practical, real-world experience across all major areas of production, including screenwriting, directing, producing, cinematography, lighting, sound recording, editing, and film analysis.

Through intensive coursework and collaborative projects, students learn how a professional film set operates and graduate with the skills, confidence, and creative foundation needed to step onto set or continue their education at the next level.
